Pursuant to Rule 2014(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), Clair E. Wischusen declares as follows:

1. I am a partner of the firm Gordon Rees Scully Mansukhani, LLP (“Gordon Rees” or the “Firm”), with offices at 275 Battery Street, Suite 200, San Francisco, California 94111. 8. To the best of my knowledge and belief, Gordon Rees has not represented any Potential Parties in Interest in connection with matters relating to the Debtors, their estates, assets, or business and will not represent other entities which are creditors of, or have other relationships to the Debtors in matters relating to these chapter 11 cases except as set forth herein.

9. Accordingly, I do not believe that any such connections between Gordon Rees and the Potential Parties in Interest result in Gordon Rees holding or representing an interest that is adverse to the Debtors or their estates.

10. In addition, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief and in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 5002, neither I nor any attorney at Gordon Rees is a relative of the United States Bankruptcy Judge assigned to these Chapter 11 Cases, and Gordon Rees does not have a connection with the United States Bankruptcy Judge that would render its retention in these Chapter 11 Cases improper. Further, in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 2014, Gordon Rees does not have any connection with the U.S. Trustee or any persons employed by the U.S. Trustee.

11. In view of the foregoing, to the best of my knowledge, Gordon Rees is a “disinterested person” within the meaning of section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, as modified by section 1107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, in that Gordon Rees, its partners, counsel, and associates:

- i. are not creditors, equity security holders, or insiders of the Debtors;
- ii. are not and were not, within two (2) years before the Petition Date, a director, officer, or employee of the Debtors; and
- iii. do not have an interest materially adverse to the interests of the Debtors’ estates or of any class of creditors or equity security holders of the Debtors, by reason of any direct or indirect relationship to, connection with, or interest in the Debtors or for any other reason.

12. As set forth above, and subject to any explanations and exceptions contained herein, Gordon Rees: (i) does not hold or represent any interest adverse to, or have any other connections with, the Debtors or their estates, or any of the Potential Parties in Interest; and (ii) is disinterested. If the results of further investigation reveal any additional connections, Gordon Rees will make any further disclosures as may be appropriate at that time.

13. The Firm intends to apply to the Court for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and the guidelines promulgated by the United States Trustee, and pursuant to any additional procedures that may be established by the Court in these Chapter 11 Cases. Gordon Rees’s fees for professional services are based upon its hourly rates, which are periodically adjusted. Gordon Rees has informed the Debtors that its rates are consistent with similar representations. The Firm's current range of standard hourly rates are reflected in the chart below:⁴

Category	Hourly Rate
Partners	$525.00
Counsel	$450.00
Associates	$425.00
Paraprofessionals	$200.00

14. The hourly rates set forth above are subject to periodic adjustments to reflect market conditions. Other attorneys and paralegals may from time to time serve the Debtors in connection with the matters herein described and other matters as they arise. These rates are the Firm's standard hourly rates for work of this nature. These rates are set at a level designed to compensate the Firm fairly for the work of its attorneys and paralegals and to cover fixed and routine overhead expenses. It is the Firm's policy to charge its clients in all areas of practice for all other expenses incurred in connection with the client's case. The expenses charged to clients include, among other things, facsimile charges, mail and express mail charges, special or hand delivery charges, document retrieval, photocopying charges, charges for mailing supplies (including, without limitation, envelopes and labels) provided by the Firm to outside copying services for use in mass mailings, travel expenses, expenses for "working meals," computerized research, transcription costs, as well as non-ordinary overhead expenses such as secretarial and other overtime. The Firm will charge the Debtors for these expenses in a manner and at rates consistent with charges made generally to the Firm's other clients.

15. No promises have been received by the Firm or by any partner, counsel, or associate thereof as to compensation in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases other than in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. The Firm has no agreement with any other entity to share with such entity any compensation received by the Firm in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases, except among the partners, counsel, and associates of the Firm.

16. Gordon Rees provides the following responses to the questions set forth in Part D of the Appendix B—Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330 by Attorneys in Larger Chapter 11 Cases, effective November 1, 2013):⁵

Question:	Answer:	Further explanation:
Did you agree to any variations from, or alternatives to, your standard or customary billing arrangements for this engagement?	No.	The billing arrangements in this matter are customary for similar matters both in and outside of bankruptcy. The Firm does not charge different rates for clients in bankruptcy. The Firm adjusts its rates periodically and occasionally tailors the billing arrangement to the specifics of the matter and client, taking into account a variety of changing factors. Billing arrangements can vary the terms of advance deposits, alternative fee arrangements, blended rates, or fee discounts to specific clients or specific matters in varying degrees. Special deviations from the Firm's standard rates are generally negotiated on a matter-by-matter basis and are generally applicable in connection with ongoing client relationships.

⁵ The U.S. Trustee Guidelines acknowledge that “the Guidelines do not supersede local rules, court orders, or other controlling authority.” While Gordon Rees intends to work cooperatively with the U.S. Trustee to address requests for information and any concerns that may have led to the adoption of the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, neither the filing of this declaration, nor anything contained herein, is intended to be an admission by Gordon Rees that the Firm is required to comply with the U.S. Trustee Guidelines. Gordon Rees reserves all rights with respect to the application of the U.S. Trustee Guidelines to any application for employment or compensation.

Question:	Answer:	Further explanation:
Do any of the professionals included in this engagement vary their rate based on the geographic location of the bankruptcy case?	No.	N/A
If you represented the client in the 12 months prepetition, disclose your billing rates and material financial terms for the prepetition engagement, including any adjustments during the 12 months prepetition. If your billing rates and material financial terms have changed postpetition, explain the difference and reasons for the difference.	Gordon Rees' billing rates have remained substantially consistent to those prepetition.	In connection with the client matters opened in the 12 months prepetition, the associate rate was identified as $375 per hour; however, no associates provided services on those matters. The $425 associate rate for these Chapter 11 Cases is based on the associate experience level required for the work as well as the firm's recently increased hourly rates. The rates in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases have not changed post-petition.
Has your client approved your respective budget and staffing plan, and, if so, for what budget period?	The Debtors and Gordon Rees have discussed an anticipated budget for these Chapter 11 Cases.	Gordon Rees' anticipated budget is reflected in any Budget with respect to the Debtors' debtor in possession financing. The Debtors and Gordon Rees reserve all rights to seek approval of the Debtors' professional fees.

17. The foregoing constitutes the statement of Gordon Rees pursuant to sections 327(e), 329, and 504 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2014(a) and 2016, and Local Rule 2014-1.

18. By reason of the foregoing, I believe that Gordon Rees is eligible for employment and retention by the Debtor pursuant to section 327(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, the applicable Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
